(3) According to the terms of the sale notification, the balance of the bid Rs 7500 should have been paid within 15 days from the date of sale, failing which the deposit made by the purchaser would be forfeited to the site record at his risk. In this case the M.C.C. has allowed time for 8 months. It is not known why the sale conditions were not enforced.

(4) After the amount was completely paid, the M.C.C. has taken one year & one month to confirm the sale. It is stated that no room will be given for such delay in future.

(5) In the crisis, the sale may perhaps be confirmed under sec 41 (2) of the M.C.C. Act, with an observation that the sale conditions should be strictly enforced & that action to confirm sales should be taken quickly.

SIR

With reference to your letter No L 12450/M1 dated 23rd June 1943 observing that there has been much delay in reporting the sale of site No 102, Silver Jubilee Park Road, Bangalore City for sanction of the Government, I have the honour to state that though the site was sold on 31-7-1941 the full value of the site was paid by the party on 24-3-1942 i.e., after a delay of nearly eight months. The sale records together with the Treasury Certificate were submitted by the Revenue Officer on 29-12-1942 and the matter was placed before the Council. The sale was confirmed by the Municipal Council at its meeting held on 15-4-1943. There was, as such, some delay in placing the matter before the Municipal Council and some delay in obtaining the sanction of the Municipal Council. No room will be given for such delay in future. The sanction of Government for the confirmation of the sale of the site in question may therefore be kindly obtained and communicated early.

I have the honour to be,
